Alina Potrykowska

DOI: 10.21858/msr.20.10

Vol. no: 20

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Mazowieckie Voivodeship is the largest voivodeship in Poland in terms of area and population. In 2015, it covered an area of 35.6 thousand square kilometers (11.4% of the country's area), which was inhabited by 5349.1 thousand people, or 13.9% of Poland's total population.

Alina Potrykowska, Sytuacja demograficzna województwa mazowieckiegoPobierz