

Beata Wereda, Elżbieta Polak

DOI: 10.21858/msr.40.02

Vol. no: 40

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The article discusses the issue of the supply of energy and fuels to the Mazowieckie Voivodeship, including the energy systems operating in the region, and analyzes the changes that occurred in the sector in question in 2010-2020 (in the absence of data, shorter periods were assumed) and the development intentions, as defined in the plans of energy companies and the so-called energy specustas: the Law of April 24, 2009. on investments in the liquefied natural gas regasification terminal in Swinoujście (gas specustaw), the law of July 24, 2015 on the preparation and implementation of strategic investments in transmission networks (transmission specustaw) and the law of February 22, 2019 on the preparation and implementation of strategic investments in the oil sector (oil specustaw).

Beata Wereda, Elżbieta Polak, Kierunki rozwoju energetyki w województwie mazowieckim w kontekście polityki klimatyczno-energetycznej Unii EuropejskiejPobierz