

Agata Gemzik-Salwach

DOI: 10.21858/msr.49.01

Vol. no: 49

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Financialisation refers to the increasing role of financial motives, markets, entities and institutions in transactions occurring in the national and international economy. The article includes consideration on whether financialisation can have a regional character. Its aim was to obtain an answer to this question and determine the usefulness of this knowledge.

MSR_49_01_Gemzik-Salwach-1Pobierz