

Marcin Bugaj, Roman Domański

DOI: 10.21858/msr.19.11

Vol no: 19

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The purpose of this publication is to present the intelligent building of the Warsaw University of Technology, which is, among other things, the Laboratory of Sustainable Energy Systems. The facility stands out for its innovation in terms of the complexity of the system supplying it with heat and electricity. It is equipped with an extensive data acquisition system, allowing full control of energy processes. Currently, the building is used for scientific research and teaching PW students.

Marcin Bugaj, Roman Domański, Budynek inteligentny - hybrydowy system energetycznyPobierz