

Mirosław Grochowski

DOI: lack

Vol. no: 2

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The metropolization of development processes is a new and difficult challenge for city governments and metropolitan areas. The development of metropolitan areas in Poland proceeds in a spontaneous and chaotic manner, resulting in functional-spatial conflicts and a lack of spatial order. There is a lack of legal regulations concerning the planning and management of the development of metropolitan areas.

Mirosław Grochowski, Samorząd terytorialny a rozwój zrównoważony obszarów metropolitalnychPobierz