

Anna Wieczorek

DOI: 10.21858/msr.40.05

Vol. no: 40

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Dozens of local governments – municipal and county councils and provincial assemblies – have passed resolutions and declarations opposing LGBT ideology. The creators of these documents emphasized the desire to protect the family based on traditional values and to defend the educational system against LGBT propaganda/ideology. Opponents warned against the stigmatization of non-heteronormative people. The guideline for the above documents became publicized in 2019. "Local Government Charter on the Rights of Families."

Anna Wieczorek, Samorząd terytorialny a „strefy wolne od LGBT” Pobierz