

Agnieszka Ajdyn

DOI: lack

Vol no: 8

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The purpose of this article is to present the tasks and activities undertaken in 2010 by the Mazovian Regional Research Center (MOBR), a unit established within the organizational structures of the Statistical Office in Warsaw. The idea behind the process of establishing the MOBR was to create a professional analytical and information resource, responsive to the changing socio-economic situation in the region.

Agnieszka Ajdyn, Mazowiecki Ośrodek Badań Regionalnych – centrum wiedzy wspierające zarządzanie w regionie
Pobierz