

Adam Kapler

DOI: 10.21858/msr.43.02

Vol. no: 43

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The State Water Holding 'Polish Waters' (PGW Wody Polskie) is the entity responsible for the national water management on the scale of catchment areas, river basins and the entire country, exercising owner's rights in relation to the waters of the State Treasury.

Main tasks of 'Polish Waters' are: protection of the inhabitants of Poland against floods and droughts, sustainable water management to protect water resources, ensuring good water quality for current and future generations.

MSR\_43\_02 Adam Kapler, Pro-ecological activities of Polish Waters in citiesPobierz