

The journal "MAZOVIA Regional Studies" is published by the Mazovian Office for Regional Planning, self-government entity subordinated to the regional self-government of the Mazowieckie Voivodship. The publisher's office is located in Warsaw.

Publisher DOI: 10.21858

The Mazovian Office for Regional Planning is specialized in themes related to regional policy and spatial planning. The Office conducts activities dedicated to preparation of the spatial development plan and development strategy of Mazowieckie Voivodship and prepares other studies, analyzes and reports on regional development and spatial planning issues.

The Mazovian Office for Regional Planning is also the publisher of two series of journals „MAZOVIA. Analysis and Studies" and „Development Trends of Mazovia" as well as other numerous books and monographs. Publications are available in electronic version on Mazovian Office for Regional Planning website.