

Tomasz Sławiński, Maciej Sulmicki

DOI: lack

Vol no: 17

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Plans for the development of Warsaw have changed with time. The first Warsaw Metropolitan Area Plan (1911) consisted of an urban core surrounded by a green belt. The 1934 Spatial Plan of Functional Warsaw presented two linear structures crossing in the city center and based on rail and road networks.

Tomasz Sławiński, Maciej Sulmicki, The 3S Model of Urban Sprawl in the Warsaw Functional Area
Pobierz