

Marcin Dwórznik

DOI: 10.21858/msr.27.02

Vol no: 27

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Evaluating the performance of a higher education institution is of interest particularly in the context of the development of the region in which it is located. For a comprehensive evaluation of a university, it is necessary to take into account, on the one hand, the efficiency and qualitative aspects of its functioning, on the other hand, the main processes carried out by universities: teaching and research. In the measurement carried out, efficiency was considered through the prism of assessing the use of resources to achieve results.

Marcin Dwórznik; Efektywność i jakość czołowych publicznych uczelni funkcjonujących na terenie województwa mazowieckiego na tle największych uczelni działających w PolscePobierz