

The first monographic exhibition about Stanisława Walasiewicz at the Museum of Sports and Tourism in Warsaw | 1

Marzena Jaworska

DOI: 10.21858/msr.se.2022.05

Vol. no: 2022

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Stanisława Walasiewicz (1911-1980), or Stella Walsh, as she was known in the United States, was one of the greatest stars of women's track and field in the world in the interwar period. She was a one-woman team, capable of competing single-handedly taking on national teams of more than one country.

Marzena Jaworska, The first monographic exhibition about Stanisława Walasiewicz at the Museum of Sports and Tourism in Warsaw
Pobierz