

Joachim Osiński

DOI: lack

Vol. no: 1

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Adopted in 2000 and intended to be implemented consistently, the Lisbon Strategy was intended to lead to the remodeling of the European Union into “the most competitive knowledge-based economy in the world, capable of sustained economic growth, creating more and better jobs and preserving social cohesion.”

Znaczenie administracji publicznej i partnerów społecznych we wdrażaniu Nowej Strategii Lizbońskiej
Pobierz