

Barbara Sałacińska, Sławomir Sałaciński

DOI: lack

Vol no: 5

Return to issue

Return to editions list

In the middle of the 5 thousand BC there was a great - Neolithic breakthrough in the life of communities living in the present Polish lands. It was brought about by groups emigrating from the south - the so-called ribbon cycle cultures and the Lendzhian-Polgarian. Stable settlement, cultivation of land, breeding of domesticated animals, the ability to weave materials, pottery appear in the economy.

Barbara Sałacińska, Sławomir Sałaciński, „Rewolucja neolityczna” na Mazowszu. Początki nowoczesnej gospodarkiPobierz