

Bogdan Szeremeta, Kyryło Żarkowski

DOI: 10.21858/msr.28.06

Vol no: 28

Return to issue

Return to editions list

The purpose of the study was to create a spatial development concept for the Michalow Meadows area in Starachowice. The study area was selected taking into account environmental aspects. Included in the paper is information on relief, soil, climate and flood risk, which shows that most of the area of Łąki Michowskie is at risk of flooding. This fact, for the realization of investment objectives, imposes the necessity of regulating the Kamienna River and building a flood control embankment.

Bogdan Szeremeta, Kyryło Żarkowski; Winnica z kompleksem turystycznowypoczynkowym w Starachowicach - koncepcja zagospodarowania przestrzennegoPobierz