

Zdzisław Struzik

DOI: lack

Vol no: 13

Return to issue

Return to editions list

Human life is a biological, psychological and spiritual process. In the material dimension as well as in the spiritual dimension, the drama of the human being is played out, from conception to natural death. The experience of spiritual life shows a different way of reaching the maturity of the “age” of the soul. The soul does not age, but rather matures, constantly expanding the scope of its knowledge, values, experience

Zdzisław Struzik, Wartości przekazywane i praktykowane przez osoby starsze w rodziniePobierz