Foreword

page 9

Part. I Analyses and Studies

Przemysław Śleszyński, Forecasting demographic processes for spatial planning needs. The case of the Konstancin-Jeziorna municipality

page 13

Mieczysław Kochanowski, Katarzyna Donimirska; The variable fate of the settlement network of the Mazovia region (including the Warsaw Metropolitan Area)

page 29

Jerzy Bański, Development challenges in rural areas in the Mazovieckie Voivodeship

page 45

Witold Andrzej Werner, The social function of property in spatial planning

page 61

Alina Maciejewska, Agnieszka Turek; The process of urban renewal and its importance in the implementation of spatial policy in the Mazowieckie Voivodeship

page 71

Mazovia Regional Studies 2018/25 | 2

Part II. Self government

Adam Struzik, The implementation of development policy in Mazovia in 1998-2018

page 93

Part III. Miscellaneous

Agata Kucharska, Dariusz Piwowarczyk; Study of the impact of modernization of the E75 railroad line on the development of the Warsaw Metropolitan Area – NSB CoRe project

page 117

Team of the YouInHerit project, implemented at the Mazovian Regional Planning Office in Warsaw; Pilot activity in the YouInHerit project – about the history of brewing in Mazovia, the need for inter-institutional cooperation and good communication

page 125

Karolina Kamińska, Maciej Sulmicki; LAirA – cooperation to improve airport accessibility by low-carbon transport

page 131